

TASTING NOTES

2021 Althelstan Merlot

This wine is named in honour of Athelstan Friend who originally operated the Narkoojee property as a dairy farm. The exceptional 2021 season has produced fruit of exceptional quality which was hand-picked from our estate vines and fermented by indigenous yeasts. This is a beautiful, lively and flavoursome wine and can be expected to develop further over the next ten years or so.

Colour:	Dense black plum with crimson edges
Bouquet:	Black plum and mulberry with truffle, cured meats, hints of violets and spicy French oak
Flavour:	Black plum and mulberry with notes of black olive, musk, truffles and spicy French oak
Texture:	Balanced with fine, integrated tannins, good acidity and a long finish
Alcohol:	14.0%

