

GIPPSLAND  VICTORIA

NARKOOJEE

2005 Pinot Noir

The excellent 2005 season in Gippsland produced temperatures averaging in the mid twenties, which is optimum for colour and flavour. The grapes were picked at the end of March. This wine represents another step in the evolution of pinot noir at Narkoojee. While attractive drinking now, this wine will develop further complexity in the bottle over the next five years.

Colour: Dark plum and dark cherry
Bouquet: Violets and Autumn Giant plum with freshly picked wild mushrooms
Flavour: Satsuma plum and dark cherry with an underlay of soft cinnamon spice
Texture: Intense with fine-grained tannins carrying through to a long finish
Alcohol: 14%